ALL-NEW HORSE HOCKEY AT THE ROYAL STARRING NHL SUPERSTARS

He shoots – HE GALLOPS – he scores!

For the first time ever, on Saturday, November 6, The Royal Agricultural Winter Fair will pit NHL legends Darryl Sittler and Rick Vaive against Brad Marsh and Mark Napier in a game of Horse Hockey. Horse Hockey – played just like polo – will entertain fairgoers as the hockey stars trade in their skates for a saddle and gallop down the playing field to aim, shoot and score their way to victory!

The game will officially kick off with 1972 hockey icon Paul Henderson throwing in the first ball.

Horse Hockey 101

- Three players to a team: two hockey greats and one polo expert
- Two, seven-minute periods
- One large ball, six polo mallets and two giant hockey nets
- The team with the most points at the game's end is declared the winner

AUTOGRAPHS: An autograph signing event with all four horse hockey players will take place at The Royal on game day at 1:15 PM. To gain entry to the autographing session, wristbands must be obtained in Heritage Court. Wristbands available starting at 10 AM.

To watch the Horse Hockey show, guests must purchase Horse Show tickets, which include general admission to all other areas of The Royal.
