

Royal Agricultural Winter Fair (RAWF) Masterfeeds Supreme Qualifier Show Eligibility

1. The regional fair must host a beef breed show for a minimum of four (4) of the beef breeds that host a show at the RAWF. In 2024 that includes, Angus, Charolais, Hereford, Limousin, Shorthorn, Simmental, and Speckle Park.
2. The regional fair must host a Supreme Championship Class with the Grand Champions of each beef breed competing for Supreme Champion Bull and/or one (1) Supreme Champion Female.
3. The regional fair must have a cumulative total of a minimum of 120 head SHOWN, from only the beef breeds that hold a breed show at the RAWF, with a minimum of 4 of the 7 RAWF beef breeds shown in the calculation. In 2024 that includes Angus, Charolais, Hereford, Limousin, Shorthorn, Simmental and Speckle Park.
4. The regional fair must submit entry data and show results from the previous fair with their consideration request.
5. The regional fair Supreme Champion Bull and Female only qualify to participate if they enter and show in their respective beef breed show at the RAWF.
6. Each regional fair request will be reviewed by the RAWF Open Beef Committee.
7. Deadline for consideration is March 1 of each year for that year's RAWF.
8. Each regional fair is required to submit their previous year's 'summary of entries' report to the RAWF by March 31 each year, and meet the above qualification parameters, to maintain qualification status. Note: A one-year probation will be permitted if qualification parameters are not met but must be met the subsequent year to maintain qualification status.

Super Qualifiers

These super qualifier shows will be selected from the existing qualifiers based on entry numbers, geographic location and number of breed shows represented. Super qualifiers will allow each breed champion both male and female to qualify for the Masterfeeds Supreme Show at the Royal.

9. Masterfeeds Beef Supreme Super Qualifier status is granted by the Supreme Beef Committee for one year only and is reviewed annually.
10. The super qualifier can qualify their breed champions for the Supreme Show at the RAWF if:
 - a. The breed holds a breed show at the RAWF (Angus, Charolais, Hereford, Limousin, Shorthorn, Simmental, and Speckle Park)
 - b. The regional fair's breed show has a minimum of 24 head SHOWN
